MATURITY

ALMA MATER

Child, child
Your first step;
Totter, stumble
Awkward, inept.

Child, child
Growing up;
Looking, learning
Like the new pup.

Child, child
You're maturing;
Trial, Error,
Still you're yearning.

Child, child,
Now called adult;
Awkward the step,
Is again your result.

On the hills of green,
Like a stately queen,
We behold thee Blue Ridge High.
Alma Mater thou, lead thy students now,
In the paths our minds should follow.

Hail to thee, oh majesty,
Teacher of the truth,
Guide and friend, with thee we spend
These golden moments of our youth.

But the time goes by,
And the years will fly,
With the swiftness of the swallow.
Then we'll go our way,
But part of us will stay
In thy halls, oh dear Blue Ridge,
Hail, oh Blue Ridge High.

DENISE KAY THATCHER

Denise passed away on May 30, 1978. Denise was loved by many. Her death hurt the hearts of her many friends and the people she met.

Denise was a member of the commercial class of this year's senior class. She participated in the Lester Hill Corporation as a Taladata Representative. She was also, the shortest girl in the senior class.

Denise brought smiles to everyone she met. She was always happy and ambitious when it came to life.

The Senior Class of 1978 wishes to dedicate our yearbook, "Reflections" to Denise Kay Thatcher.

SENIORS

Time is but the stream I go a-fishing in. I drink at it; but while I drink I see the sandy bottom and detect how shallow it is.
Its thin current slides away, but eternity remains.

Homecoming 1978

PAM KELLY, Homecoming Queen

The 1978 Homecoming was an unusual one. Because of the discontinuance of football, the Homecoming was for basketball. The game was against Montrose. The team put out great efforts in displaying a good game. We were greatly disappointed that our Homecoming was not with football, but everyone took it in stride and the 1978 Homecoming was a success.

Every part of nature teaches that the passing away of one life is the making room for another. The oak dies down to the ground, leaving within its rind a rich virgin mould, which will impart a vigorous life to an infant forest.

SENIORS

The 1977 football season started with a limited number of candidates. Practice started in July and continued until the later part of October with the completion of six conference games. From July through October only the dedicated and hard working athletes of Blue Ridge High School continued in the program. Some boys gave it a try for one day while others gave up football because of working commitments. When our numbers further declined with the addition of injuries, the Administration and Coaches made the decision to discontinue the program. The continuation of the program would only jeopardize the safety and welfare of those boys who were participating with injuries.

Those young men who stayed with the football program worked hard and earned the respect of their coaches and competitors. They know the value of teamwork, dedication, and good sportsmanship.

The coaches during the 1977 football season included Mr. Connelly, Mr. Pambianco, Mr. Kovaleski, and Mr. Vaxmonsky. Each coach contributed to the program and played an important part in getting the maximum potential out of the team and the boys who participated in the program.

The 1978 YEARBOOK FORUM was held at Wilkes College. The members of Junior and Senior Yearbook Staffs that participated in the Forum this year are Pat McHugh, Debbie Henneforth, Debbie Martel, Melinda Adams, Bonnie Brush, Lynn Sherman, and Wendy Flewelling.

RICK CARTWRIGHT and PAUL KUPST helped make this year's yearbook a success. These gentlemen stamped our "Raider Pads" with the names of our customers. They learned how to use the hot stamp machine so that they could, too, participate in helping out, so that we could have a yearbook this year.

Yes, we are almost finished.

It was a lot of hard work. We ran across a lot of problems and frustrations. But we made it.

Wake up girls, it isn't over yet!

The 1978 PROM COMMITTEE. Their advisor is George Ehrenberg. The theme of this year's prom was "Lady."

These students work hard to organize a prom and make it a success. And the prom of 1978 was indeed a success.

This is the BUSINESS CONTESTANTS for the 1978 school year. The contest was held at Mountain View High School.

George S. and Wendy F. brought honor to themselves and to the school by placing as two of the winners in their field.

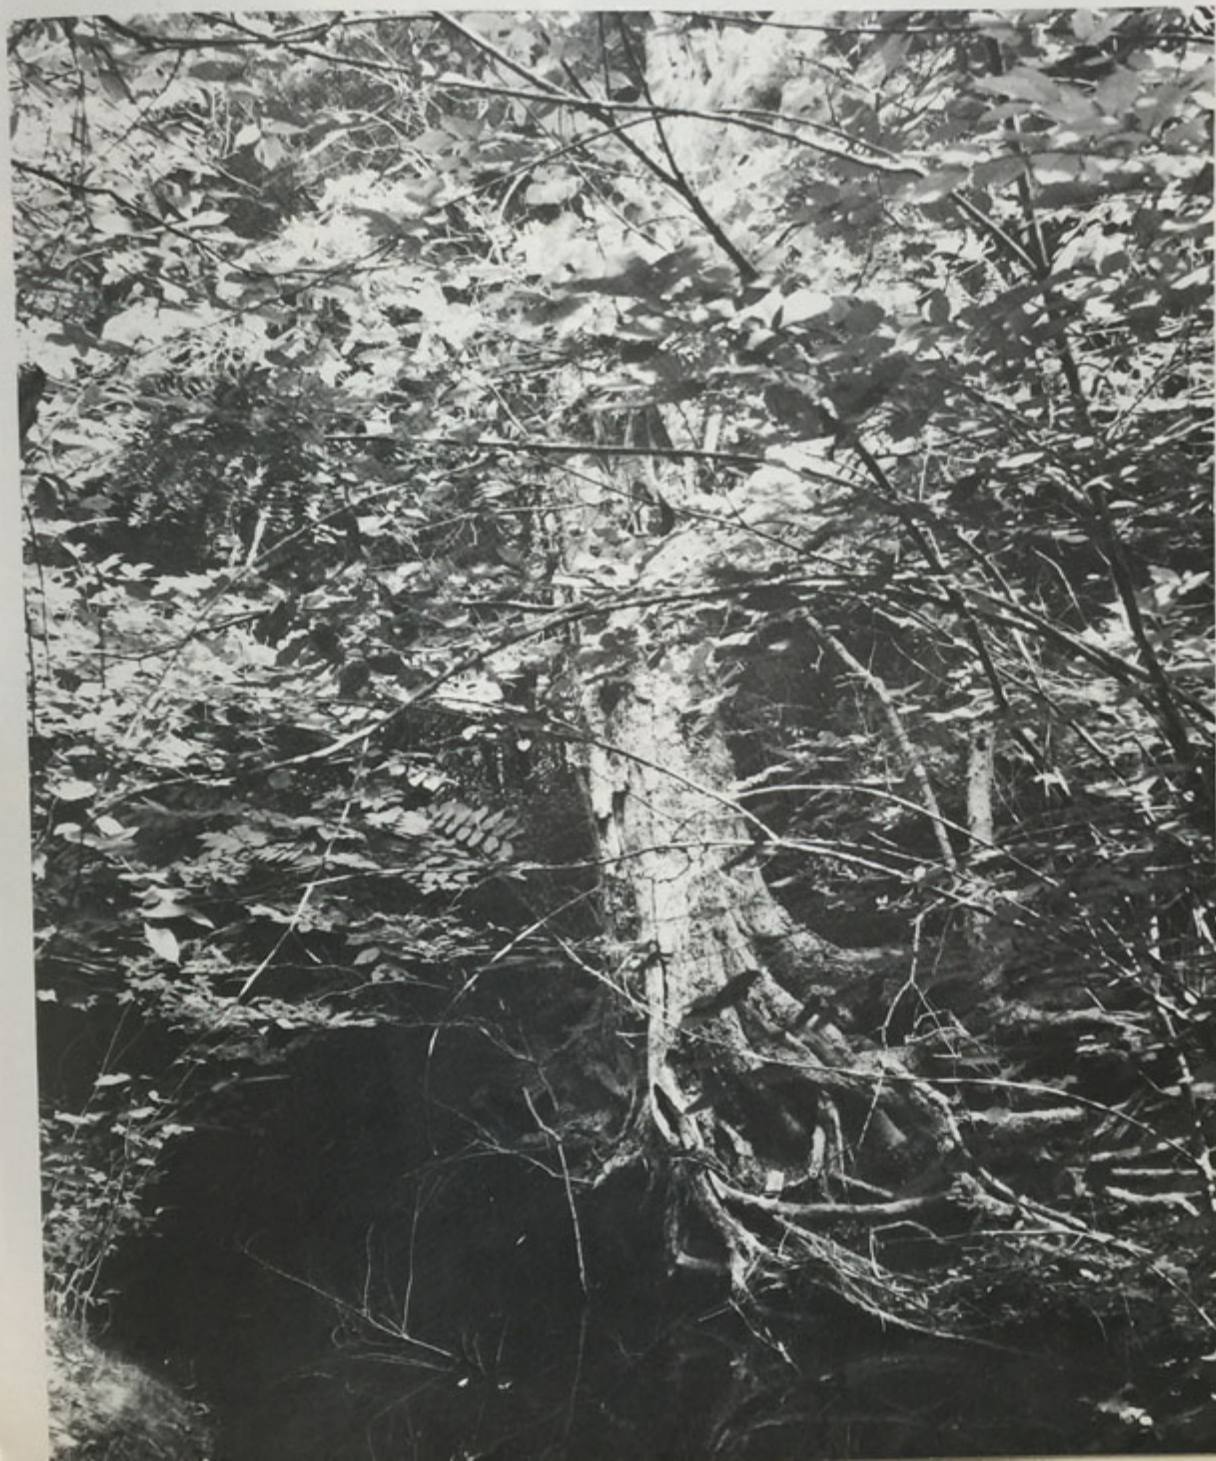

POSTER AND ART CONTEST WINNERS. Chris Wells, Ann Potter, Amy Protz, and Linda Evans. Each picture represents a different contest.
