ERSTINE KLEMP

IN MEMORIAM

It is a land of beauty—that we know
And birds and flowers and trees
And rivers and dells and quiet
A life filled with peace and ease.
Our loved one has gone to this beautiful shore
This home of the truly blest
Where pain and sorrow can reach him no more
For a quiet and well-deserved rest.

Girls' Athletic News

We played just two games of soft ball last fall. Of course we won both games.

The girls, under the fine coaching of Miss Brotzman, organized a very efficient basketball team this year. Although they did not succeed in obtaining the championship, their excellent playing achieved for them second place in the League, being defeated by but one team.

We lost only two girls from the team this year and although they will be missed we are looking forward to a fine team and a successful season next year.

There wasn't any track for the girls last year. But we are hoping to be able to participate in it this year.

Class Will

We, the class of '46, being of sound mind and memory, and knowing the uncertainty of this life, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

To the school board we leave our gratitude for giving us the opportunity of learning.

To Mr. Oliver we bequeath one dozen beautiful secretaries so that he will never have to worry about office reports and attendance registers.

To Mrs. Oliver we will a class of brain-children to make teaching more lively.

To Miss McAndrew we will a set of collapsible maps. The kind which fit into a closet easily.

To Miss Brotzman we will smaller phys. ed. classes and a large amount of pity for the girls who take calisthenics.

To Miss Magner we bequeath a sprig of mistletoe and Mr. Oliver. They are both too nice to stay single forever.

To Miss Ansley we will an office at least large enough to turn around in.

To Mr. Stearns we leave a corsage of mistletoe to add zest to his dreary life and a life insurance policy in case he gets smallpox.

To Mr. Grow we will a pair of roller skates to save shoe leather and make life more interesting.

To Mr. Gatski we will a bottle of "Stay Away" perfume so that he may have at least one minute each day with only boys around.

To Rev. Thomas we leave a box of cure-all pills so that he will never have to go to a basketball game with only half a team—second team at that.

To the Junior class we will a fortune to help finance their never-ending parties.

To the Sophomore class we will a guard of honor to protect the few remaining fellows.

To the Freshmen we will a large classroom so that both boys and girls may have class together and eventually become acquainted.

To the future freshmen we leave a desire to please the high school teachers for a change.

Irene Decker wills a "Wise-man" to Clara Mae Stevens.

Beverly wills her "Dodge" to Paul Chauncey in hopes that he may go places without having a break down.

Esther Bolles wills her ability to argue to Etta Mae Chamberlain.

Eleanor Garrahy wills her skill at acting to Joyce Aldrich.

Charles Leslie wills his perfect scores in music history to LaVerne Mason.

Viola Adams leaves Gerald Munson to Martha Carpenter.

Ruth Canfield wills her height to Diane Stearns.

Betty Whitney leaves her share of cupid's arrows to Eloise Dexter.

Glenna Mae Shoemaker wills at least one of her boyfriends to the sophomore class in which there appears to be an acute man shortage.

Ruth Tunilo leaves her quiet manners and her shyness with Charlotte Tingley.

Mary Droter wills her cheery smile and high grades to Freddy Fernano.

Doris Hallam wills her athletic ability to Aneta Tyler.

Getty Randall wills her Louis to Miss McAndrew's history class so they may have a Louis XIX.

Gerald Munson leaves his singing ability with Mae Campbell's so they can sing a duet.

Joan Slocum wills her truck to any girls of the calisthenics class who are too lame to walk.

Jane Herbert wills her all-over laugh and her popularity to Mable Darrow.

Agnes Cobb wills her musical talent to Ray Ostrom and her way with the cops to Helen Walworth.

Dorothy Pease wills her sweet personality to Jo Ann Welch.

Donald Major wills a "page" to the Junior class in hopes that they will turn over a new leaf.

Ike Armstrong leaves his ability to pick out a "deer" to Lyle Leonard.

Frank VanHousen leaves all his consolation to the dozens of sophomore girls who have tried in vain to be his Juliet.

Marilyn Page wills her executive ability to anyone who qualifies.

Wendell Whitney wills his knack of always being in the wrong place at the wrong time to Douglas Pease.

Maude Elbrecht wills her chatter and her sense of humor to Elizabeth Moss.

Leo Bajkowski wills his marvelous physique, including the broad shoulders, to Harvey Whitney.

Avis Tyler leaves a phonograph, guaranteed to last forever and capable of producing at least 1,000 words a minute, to Edith Stevens.

Leonard Poller wills his vocal talent to Bill Millard so that Bill will stand a chance with the girls.

Geneva Ralston leaves her five years of hard labor in high school behind her without a single tear, to anyone who feels he needs them.

Edwin Wilmarth leaves his technique of making sundaes to all persons interested in setting up a business.

To the student body we leave the memory of an illustrious and successful class to serve as an inspiration in the coming years.

The foregoing instrument was signed, sealed, published and declared by the board of testators in my presence, on this the tenth day of May in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and forty-six.

—Avis Tyler

Class Poem

Nine of the original cast are left—
Others have been added from time to time.
Soon asunder we all will be reft—
Opinions expressed in this poem are mine.

Some come from Jackson,
One from Franklin Hill,
Most are from the Country,
A few are in town still.

One by one I'll bring them
In everyday attire—
However crazy this poem may sound,
Measure what I say with salt by the pound.

Like Adam, Viola is the first,
Tho unlike him, she has no Eve.
Instead she has an Earl,
To him she'll go when she leaves.

From Franklin Hill comes Armstrong, Ike,
Practical jokes are what he likes.
He teases Miss McAndrew from 9 to 4,
That is enough—need we say more?

Next in line is Leo,
Heart-beat of the Senior Class.
He is the big, strong, silent type,
Someday he'll meet "that certain lass".

Esther loves to wiggle,
Also she's $\frac{3}{4}$ giggle.
But we who know her well
Will tell you—we think Esther's swell.

Agnes Cobb is the next girl's name,
She'll probably work her way to fame.
She is called "Cobbie" by her friends,
And to her talents there is no end.

Ruthie's got a sailor,
She's hanging onto him tight.
She'll probably marry him in the end,
He'll surrender without a fight.

Irene has a halter,
In the form of an engagement ring.
She belongs to Walter,
It is of this we sing.

Beverly Dodge is a traveled lass,
And as a result has lots of class.
In the Navy is her heart,
When he comes back, they'll never part.

From Jackson now our Mary comes,
In shorthand she's the smartest one.
In typing, too, she is so fast
We'll bet on Mary til the last.

Maude is a farmer girl,
Hard work is for her a whirl.
On the side she raises rabbits,
Cheerfulness is one of her habits.

Eleanor hitched her wagon to a star,
"With Latin," said she, "I can go far."
French was the next she tried
And decided that to languages her fate was not tied.

Into consideration we now take Jane,
Just ask her where is lovers lane.
She knows them all from A to Z,
As to Dave's heart she has the key.

Chuck Leslie is Class Editor,
The Van Johnson type is he.
He'll probably end up President
Of this our fair cuntrye.

"My love is like a red, red rose
That's newly bloomed in spring."
When Donnie starts to talk that way,
It's of Marilyn he sings.

Gerald was the undertaker
In the Senior Play.
He'll be a great success in life
If we have our way.

Marilyn's the gal who'll take a chance,
Marry a minister and live in a manse.
Through her house work each day she'll breeze,
And handle a dozen kids with ease.

A missionary our Dot would be,
Whether it happens we'll wait and see.
She'd carry the Gospel from ice and snow
Into the wilds of Borneo.

Pollar's voice is soft and croony,
When he sings, the girls get swoony.
His job is driving the mail truck,
And with his life's work we wish him luck.

Doris Hallam, a modest lass,
Is Poet Laureate of our class.
Never silent, most always gabby,
Her ashes we'll sprinkle in Westminster Abbey.

Geneva loves to do up hair,
Miss Magner she aggravates for fair.
For years she's gone with only Tiff,
Cupid has hit this pretty miss.

Getty's face is never long,
She treats the world as one grand song.
Each day she breezes gayly through
The jobs that are set for her to do.

Glenna Mae is our quiet one,
She always has her tasks well done.
What her dreams are we cannot say,
But hope she gains them some fair day.

Joan Slocum is next in line,
And when she leaves we all will pine.
Kenny is a lucky guy,
Oh my! Oh my! Oh my! Oh my!

Ruthie (T) comes from Williams Pond,
A gal of whom we all are fond.
She loves a sailor; he loves her too,
That's our Ruthie through and through.

Avis plays on the Basketball team,
To 3 Marines she's a beautiful dream.
In school she really is very smart,
And now with regrets from her we depart.

Next we wish to speak of Van,
At basketball he's quite a man.
In P.O.D. he's at no loss,
And one more thing—he's never cross.

Betty dashes into the hall,
Mahlon has just given her a call.
She says it won't always be that way,
After they're married she'll have the say.

Wendell, known as Pee Wee
Is next upon our list.
When they passed out inches,
Wendell definitely was missed.

Eddie's father runs a store
Where Eddie's always in the fore.
Enthroned behind all that ice-cream and goo,
One thing about Eddie—he sees a thing through.

The days are almost over
When we can be together.
But always wherever we roam,
New Milford will be our home.

—Doris Hallam

Class History

We, the class of '46, as Freshmen were an eager group of 52. We first became acquainted with the students from Jackson and Franklin Hill. Mr. Webster was our home room teacher in the laboratory. One of the first things to enter our minds was the privilege to choose our courses and the subjects we desired to study. We elected Leo Bajkowski as our president and as an undecided group we couldn't make up our minds what to do for a class party. We finally decided to have a skating party at Upper Lake because we won the Stamp and Bond drive contest. Later we had a party in the school auditorium. During the year many of us became familiar occupants of detention hall.

In '43 we returned to our studies somewhat depleted in numbers. There were now only 48 of us. We settled down in the library with Mrs. Oliver as our home room teacher and Charles Leslie as President. We discovered that we had all new teachers with the exception of Mrs. Oliver and Mr. Stearns, and that Mr. John was our new Principal.

The school calendar was so full that there was very little time for parties of our own. During the year Eddie Randall left us to join the Merchant Marine.

Mr. John took the biology class to Brooklyn, Pa. to visit Mr. Gere's farm. The whole class was pleased to learn that Ruth Tunilo and Erstine Klemp had perfect attendance during the year. At least there were two people that Mrs. Oliver didn't have to ask for excuses every other day.

When we met as Juniors we were astonished to find only 35 classmates. It was a great loss but we finally adjusted ourselves and went right back into the laboratory with Miss Ansley and Mr. Laubach as our leaders. Our new Principal was Mr. Oliver and our new President, Beverly Dodge.

Talk about being excited—that was us the day we ordered our class rings. Our Christmas party was the first party we had that year, wasn't it boys? On April 5 we presented our Junior play, "Don't Take My Penny".

During the year Robert Jennings, David Armstrong, Glenn Davies and Bruce Darrow joined the navy. Jane Herbert and Irene Decker returned to our class after spending some time in Binghamton schools.

We sponsored a Junior Prom for the dignified Seniors. The auditorium was decorated with ground pine with blue stars hanging from the ceiling. A beautiful fish pond in the center was lighted from a large star of ground pine. Buddy Howe and his all girl orchestra furnished the music.

At last we entered our final year of scholastic work with our chosen sponsor, Mr. Stearns. We elected Leo as our president and engaged in many activities to raise money for our trip to New York. These activities included the harvest supper and ball, the Senior play, "Spooks and Spasms", dances, movies and selling milk.

Erstine Klemp was the next to join Uncle Sam's Army. We had a party for him a Page's Pond. We were shocked to hear of his death on December 27 in Maryland.

We certainly had a wonderful time at our Christmas party. The whole school was excited over the mistletoe which hung over the door of our home room.

We know our class will long be remembered in the years to come as a result of Mr. Stearns being quarantined for scarlet fever.

After twelve happy years we have reached our goal and May 27, 1946, we, the rugged twenty-nine graduate. We are looking forward to our trip to New York City with great anticipation.

We, the class of '46 bid farewell to all our friends and schoolmates.

—Irene Decker
